

Join Ben's Independence Corp

5 Traveling Internships are available on the Ben Westlund for Governor Campaign

The Ben Westlund for Governor Campaign is looking for summer interns to make up the Independence Corps and travel as an advance team around Oregon. This is your opportunity to be part of the 2006 gubernatorial process. Come learn the day-to-day mechanics of a state wide, grass-roots campaign.

The Independence Corps will:

- Gather signatures
- Meet people
- Write and update a blog about their travels
- Canvass
- Attend fairs
- Attend music events
- Staff tables
- Staff Ben at events
- Camp in beautiful campgrounds
- Travel state wide

Members of the Independence Corps must be:

- Able to work well in a team environment
- Organized
- Flexible
- Hardworking
- Creative
- Resourceful
- Available for travel

Independence Corps members must also enjoy:

- People
- Camping
- Travel
- Politics

We will train you, so no political campaign experience is needed! A stipend and mileage will be provided by the Campaign.

The Campaign is more than happy to work with interns on ensuring they receive college credit for their summer work. Interns are responsible for working through the details of the program with their schools.

If you are interested in joining the Independence Corps, please contact Stacey Dycus at (877) 544-9222 or email stacey@benwestlund.com.
